International Forum: Asia-Pacific Heritage Studies 2023 UNESCO Chair Research Final Presentation

December 19th, 2023 15:00-19:20 (KST) on ZOOM

Korea National University of Cultural Heritage(KNUCH) was opened in March 2000 by the Cultural Heritage Administration of the Republic of Korea. In March 2017, KNUCH signed an agreement with UNESCO establishing a UNESCO Chair on “Capacity-Building for the Preservation and Restoration of the Asia-Pacific Cultural Heritage”. Through this UNESCO Chair, KNUCH have carried out activities such as education, research, exchange of scholars and students, workshops, seminars, and publishing research results for educational purposes in the heritage field. In 2023, KNUCH aimed to expand international research network of cultural-heritage related institutions and experts to foster interdisciplinary research subjects related to Asia-Pacific heritage.

- Research Period: May 2023 – December 2023
- Participants:
 - 2 Research teams at KNUCH
 - 5 Individual / international researchers
